

Human Subjects Protection Program

Committed to protecting the rights and welfare of human participants involved in research

ABOUT US

The Human Subjects Protection Program (HSPP), a part of the Office of Research and Partnerships (ORP), is committed to protecting the rights and welfare of human subjects involved in research. We emphasize collaborative engagement to achieve best practices and shared acceptance of core values. The HSPP is the administrative and regulatory support unit to the University of Arizona Institutional Review Board (IRB).

<https://research.arizona.edu/compliance/human-subjects-protection-program>

An IRB must review all research and related activities involving human subjects conducted at the University of Arizona or in which the University is a responsible participant.

- ▶ Training: All members of the research team are required to complete CITI training. University of Arizona CITI training is valid for four (4) years. See: <https://research.arizona.edu/compliance/human-subjects-protection-program/hspp-training>.
- ▶ Forms: Forms can be downloaded here: <https://research.arizona.edu/compliance/human-subjects-protection-program/HSPP-forms>.
- ▶ Listserv: Sign up for the listserv to receive announcements regarding revisions to forms, policies, and federal rule changes here: <https://research.arizona.edu/compliance/human-subjects-protection-program/about-the-irb#IRBListserv>.