

Human Subjects Protection Program

Committed to protecting the rights and welfare of human participants involved in research

ABOUT US

The Human Subjects Protection Program, a part of the Research, Innovation, & Impact (RII), is committed to protecting the rights and welfare of human subjects involved in research. We emphasize collaborative engagement to achieve best practices and shared acceptance of core values. The HSPP Office is the administrative and regulatory support units to the Institutional Review Boards (IRBs).

<https://research.arizona.edu/compliance/human-subjects-protection-program>

An IRB must review all research and related activities involving human subjects conducted at the University of Arizona or by which the University is a responsible participant.

- ▶ Training: All members of the research team are required to complete CITI training, which is valid for four (4) years: <https://research.arizona.edu/compliance/human-subjects-protection-program/hssp-training>.
- ▶ Forms: HSPP forms and templates can be downloaded here: <https://research.arizona.edu/compliance/human-subjects-protection-program/HSPP-forms>.
- ▶ eIRB: Leverage our online submission portal for all human research requests: <https://eirb.arizona.edu/IRB>.
- ▶ Listserv: Sign up for the listserv to receive announcements regarding revisions to forms, policies, and federal rule changes here: <https://research.arizona.edu/compliance/human-subjects-protection-program/about-the-irb>.