

All Investigators are required to disclose their significant financial and personal interests, and those of their Family Members, and their sponsored and non-sponsored research projects.

An Investigator is “any person who is responsible for the design, conduct or reporting of Research.” This includes all persons who are responsible for the design, conduct or reporting of Research regardless of their title, employment status and percentage of effort.

- ➔ The term “Investigator” is based upon the individual’s independence in the design, conduct, or reporting of the Research.
- ➔ The term “Investigator” is not limited to the Principal Investigator (PI), Co-PI, Co-Investigator, Project Director (PD), Co- PD, Senior/Key Personnel.

Who is an Investigator?

Investigators

- Individuals responsible for some aspect of the design, conduct or reporting of the Research.
-  • Individuals who are directly involved in the research intervention or consenting or evaluation of human research subjects.
- Students, trainees, collaborators, volunteers and consultants if those individuals have some degree of independence in performing some aspect of the design, conduct or reporting of the Research.

Non-Investigators

- Individuals whose performance is purely ancillary.
-  • Individuals whose performance occurs solely under immediate supervision.
- Hospital or office staff who provide only ancillary or intermittent care.
- Hospital or office staff who do not make direct and significant contributions to the research data.

Where do I submit my disclosure?

University Employees and Students should submit their disclosures in the University’s COI Disclosure System. The required COI training is available in UArizona's EDGE System.

Don't have a NETID? Non-University Employees should submit their disclosure via webform, available at <https://rgw.arizona.edu/conflict-interest-disclosure-form-subcontractors-consultants-and-collaborators>. The required COI training for Non-University Employees is available at https://rgw.arizona.edu/sites/default/files/coi_training/story_html5.html.